Supervisor opened the floor to comments on Short term Rental Law.

John Russell of Arrowhead Beach Rd inquired when layout of house need to be submitted to code, Dwight James stated when the STR next renewal.

Lindsay Bolton an agent of Finger Lakes Premier Property is concerned that the occupancy reduction causes issues. She has currently 45 rentals within the Town of Torrey she manages.

Question on renewals. Mr. James stated when the two year permit expires it may be renewed barring there are no issue of lapse or property sold.

When the new law goes into effect will it impact present permits.

Mr. James stated he will stager the 2 year renewal process.

Parking and occupancy regulations are strictly enforced by FL Premier. She asked that the law limit parking not occupancy.

Ms Bolton has the formula for receptacles' she will send to the Code Officer.

Vanessa Goff has property on Perry Point Rd and Boston Rd. What determines the septic size, the number of occupants or the number of bedrooms.

Discussion on what is considered a bedroom.

How does Yates County determine STR for occupancy tax. Code Officer supplies list of rental permits issued.

How will the number of STR permits to be issued for the year be determined. Fee schedule will determine total number to be issued.

Patricia Bonacci Arrowhead Beach Rd has had many issues with short term rentals in neighborhood. Who does she contact regarding issues.

Ms. Bolton stated she is notified of property concerns and deals with the issues right away. The property rules and regulations are clearly spelled out in rental contract.

Question on neighbor notifications with managers contact information will relieve the law enforcement addressing these complaints.

Mr. James stated regarding the septic and occupancy if the property owners did self-certifying it would relieve the town of liability with inspection of property.

George Dowse, Chairman of the Planning Board will take the editing changes and incorporate them into the STR draft And send the final draft out to the board.

Supervisor tabled the Short-Term Rental Law public hearing for revisions to the law and will introduce the final draft at May meeting.

Brief discussion on election years, Mr. Downs explained New election bill A42826/S3505B.

Another note: the Supervisor, Town Clerk and Highway Superintendent would petition to change terms to 4 year.

Motion by Mr. Downs 2nd Mr. Petersen to adjourn at 9:50pm carried.

Respectfully submitted
